

BE A DISCIPLE

Because God sees us all the same, the Golden Rule is central to the idea of reaching out. When you can embrace difficulty, inconvenience, and cross-cultural dissonance while obeying God and serving others you possess experience and understanding that will give dividends for life.

Becoming a disciple involves more than attending a Bible Study. Take steps toward integrating faith and grace as you live in front of humanity. Apply the Word of God and embrace His view of yourself. Missions is a lifestyle choice. Make your move! Follow God and bless others.

YOUR FACILITATOR

David Caldwell was a dairy farmer with a 4:45am wake up call. Today, he still wakes up early, but it's not the cows that are calling him to work. Through an experience with short term foreign missions, God laid a passion on David's heart to start camp programs that help the church, and it's with this in mind that he has been working for the past two decades toward raising up leaders in the church. David uses discipleship and leadership training through intentional camp programs to impact a generation for Christ. David and his second-generation missionary wife, Karen, tag team teach and share as they minister to short-termers, ministry interns, and missionaries-in-training in their home, Los Domos, a training and R&D facility located in the mountains outside of Morelia, Michoacan, Mexico.

WHY CAMPS?

Camp Is A Church Tool

The local church is God's organization. We partner with pastors to help them use camp for their community. The church's leaders lead the camp. The church's children are the campers. Follow-up and discipleship after camp is a natural overflow of the church's existing system to minister to its people.

Camp Is Strategic

Christian camps use the most effective means to reach the most receptive hearts. When trained counselors minister to children in a distraction free zone, children have a greater chance of responding to God's truth.

Camp Creates Leaders

A camp counselor is a leader in the making. Camps are ideal environments to develop leaders for church and society.

Our most fundamental purpose is to challenge others to equip themselves so they can tell many about God's design of redemption through His son Jesus.

His Voice

Using your VOICE can, and often does, involve travel to exotic destinations. But God also calls us to be good stewards of what He blesses us with; be that talents, resources, or time. Consider missions by starting here: Ask God.

Are you ready to be a voice heard among nations, declaring Christ everywhere you go?

Perhaps you are feeling that you could do more. Perhaps your church is looking for ways to get more involved in foreign missions. Perhaps you have time but limited resources.

If you are willing to see a project through, there are things you can do that will allow a kid to get to camp, help a faraway church develop a leader, or simply sharpen your own sense of God's will for you.

Your Action

Are you flexible and resourceful? Interested in culture? Ready to test the abilities God has given you? Whether being proactive for children, missionaries, or projects, Camps International has a place for you.

People make missions happen. Bring your passion and ability, and we will align you with a task or volunteer team to meet real needs in real ways.

YOUR VOICE

From Home: Broke Believer

Ever wished you could help but your wallet disagreed? Giving financially is not the only way to support a missionary and their work. Broke Believer is a program that connects far away mission needs with your desire to be resourceful.

Gather donated supplies, build activities, host a fundraiser, or sign up for a remote internship that involves graphic design, administration, marketing, engineering, media, etc.

Away From Home

God wants to do something with your skill sets, passions, and even your perceived inadequacies. Will you enter into participation with Him through missions?

Leave familiarity and comfort for the impact of the Gospel. Use your giftings and develop your influence in the context of volunteer service.

If you don't know where you are going, you can find out. Getting experience goes a long way toward learning what you really like and developing the things you are good at.

VOICE programs range from short-term group trips to one-on-one internship experiences where calluses are formed and worldviews are challenged.

Camps International was founded with the fundamental belief that each of us has a role to play in the Great Commission and Jesus' command to go into all the world and make disciples of all nations.

Dive deeper into discovering your mission and purpose through one of our many VOICE programs.
